

15 March 2023

Dear HKIOA Member,

Application Invitation for the HKIOA Acoustics Awards 2023

On behalf of the Hong Kong Institute of Acoustics (HKIOA), it is my honour to invite you to submit your applications for the HKIOA Acoustics Awards 2023 (AA 2023).

The AA 2023 is our Institute's new signature event. This freshly launched initiative encourages the industry to continue creating excellent and innovative acoustic work, as well as gives recognition to outstanding acoustic projects and products in our professional realm. Your participation will be instrumental in accelerating industry growth and creativity and will heighten public and peer awareness of your projects and products. All winners will be selected based on their concept, innovation, excellence, professional knowhow, challenges overcome, and practicality.

The designated website for the AA 2023 has now been launched. You are welcome to visit the awards website at <https://award.hkioa.org> to learn about the array of submission categories on offer.

Application submission will commence on 10 March and wrap on 1 May. You may refer to the below schedule for the application process in full –
